

Wake up! The Earth is Changing

AN EVENING TALK AND CONCERT

WITH ANA POGAČNIK

WEDNESDAY OCT. 8, AT 7:00 PM, GARDENIA CENTER

Ana Pogačnik is coming to Sandpoint this fall to offer an opportunity to learn more about the partnership that can exist between humanity and the Earth at this auspicious time in history. In this evening talk and concert, Ana will show how awareness of changing earth conditions can help awaken us to parallel shifts taking place within our own inner being. As we are deeply connected with Mother Earth, are we being invited to participate in a great shift in consciousness at this time? This talk will include piano improvisations by Ana.

General Admission $10

Ana Pogačnik is an international Geomancy instructor founder of the Schule Wieder Sehen (School "To See Again"), accomplished musician and composer and co-author of the book, How Wide the Heart: The Roots of Peace in Palestine and Israel. She was born in 1973 in Slovenia but has lived in Munich since 2005. Ana first studied piano at the Conservatory in Ljubljana and then later archeology at Ljubljana University specializing in prehistory. Since 1990 she has worked doing geomancy and lithopuncture with her father Marko Pogačnik. In 2002 she started developing her own educational program through Schule Wieder Sehen called "A Deeper Cognition of Landscape." Ana works with several groups of students in Europe and around the world, including most recently North America.
