

A PLACE WHERE THE EARTH RECREATES HERSELF

A Geomancy Seminar in the San Francisco Bay Area

with Ana Pogacnik

Thursday evening, September 16 — Sunday afternoon, September 19, 2010
Fort Schlesinger's Barn, Petaluma, CA

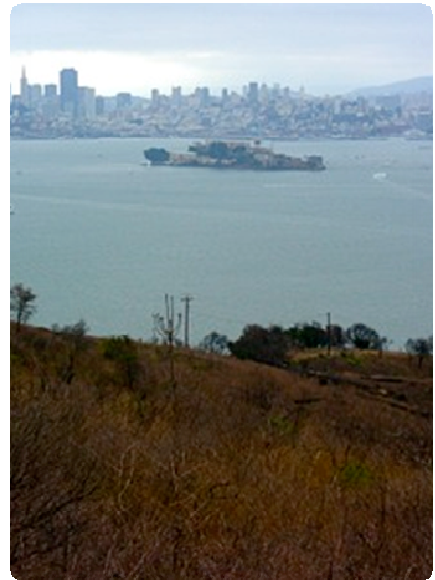

The San Francisco Bay area plays a crucial role in the health and wellbeing of the Earth and her creatures, as a place where an ongoing exchange of energy constantly renews and recreates Her vitality. However, human activity in this area over the last several centuries has negatively impacted the ability of this place to fulfill its task. Working at sites on Alcatraz Island, Mount Tamalpais, and the city of San Francisco itself, this seminar will continue the mutual healing and transformation of the Earth and humanity begun by Ana and her students over the past two years.

The cost of this seminar is $300, including ferry tickets to Alcatraz and transportation from Petaluma to the sites. Meals may be ordered for an additional, per meal, cost of $10 for breakfast (Fri, Sat), $15 for lunch (Fri, Sat, Sun), $20 for supper (Thu, Fri, Sat).

Lodging will be :

- 1) camping on-site for a small fee,
- 2) local hotels or campgrounds, or
- 3) with local seminar participants.

Ana Pogacnik, international Geomancy instructor, founder of Schule “Wieder Sehen” (School “To See Again”), accomplished musician and composer, and co-author of the book How Wide the Heart: The Roots of Peace in Palestine and Israel, will return to Northern California this fall, offering opportunities to learn about the partnership that can exist between humanity and the Earth at this auspicious time in history. Ana's seminars are grounded in the understanding that we are a microcosmic “cell” of the Earth and that, our presence, our being, and our activities mirror the outer landscape while, at the same time, it mirrors our inner selves back to us.
